27. To carry on any other lawful business or activity which is incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects, provided that such activity is permitted under applicable laws, rules and regulations.

REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

All manufacturing, processing, packaging, labelling, storage, marketing, sale, import, export and distribution activities of the LLP shall be undertaken only in accordance with the applicable laws, rules, standards, licences, registrations, permissions and regulatory requirements applicable from time to time.

The LLP shall not make any medicinal, therapeutic, disease-prevention or other regulated product claims in respect of its products except to the extent permitted by applicable law and supported by the required approvals, licences or evidence.

REGULATORY, DATA-PROTECTION AND INTELLECTUAL-PROPERTY LIMITATION

The LLP shall undertake any activity requiring a statutory licence, registration, approval, permission, professional qualification, certification or other regulatory authorisation only after obtaining and maintaining the applicable approval and strictly within its permitted scope.

Where the LLP processes personal data or other protected information, it shall comply with applicable data-protection, privacy, cybersecurity and information-technology laws.

The LLP shall respect applicable intellectual-property rights and shall not use, reproduce, distribute or commercially exploit third-party software, content, data, trademarks or other protected material except under a valid licence or other lawful authority.

9. PARTNER REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

The Partners shall be entitled to remuneration by way of salary, bonus, commission or other consideration as mutually agreed from time to time, subject to the Income Tax Act, 1961 and applicable law, and as approved by resolution of the Partners.

Travel and conveyance expenses incurred for LLP business, including air, rail, road travel, boarding, lodging and reasonable incidental expenses, shall be borne or reimbursed by the LLP. Local conveyance, fuel, taxi and official use of a Partner's vehicle may also be reimbursed.

The LLP may provide health, accident and life insurance coverage for Partners and, where mutually agreed, their immediate family members. Premiums and eligible medical expenses may be borne by the LLP subject to applicable law.

The LLP shall reimburse reasonable mobile, internet and communication expenses and costs relating to laptops, software and IT facilities required for LLP operations.

The LLP may provide, lease or reimburse expenses relating to motor vehicles used for official purposes, including fuel, maintenance, driver allowance and insurance.

Where required for business-operations, the LLP may provide accommodation, guest-house facilities or reimbursement of rent/lease expenses incurred by a Partner.

The LLP shall bear reasonable expenses incurred by Partners for professional training, seminars, conferences, workshops, trade fairs, professional memberships and representation of the LLP.

Partners may receive entertainment, representation and other incidental allowances reasonably incurred for promotion of the LLP's business.

Sureya Narayan Moharana
Gushree Sahu

The LLP may, at its discretion, create or contribute to a welfare fund, retirement corpus or similar scheme for the benefit of Partners.

All remuneration, benefits and reimbursements shall be subject to applicable tax laws and shall be treated as deductible business expenditure only to the extent permissible under law.

10. CAPITAL CONTRIBUTION

A separate capital account shall be maintained for each Partner. The initial capital of the LLP shall be Rs. 1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only), contributed as follows:

Ms. Itishree Sahu (First Partner): 90% – Rs. 90,000/- (Rupees Ninety Thousand only).

Mr. Surya Narayan Moharana (Second Partner): 10% – Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only).

The capital contribution may be increased from time to time with the mutual consent of all the Partners.

11. ADDITIONAL FUNDS BY PARTNERS

The Partners may bring additional capital in such manner as agreed in writing depending upon the requirements of the LLP.

Instead of additional capital, a Partner may grant a loan to the LLP. The LLP shall pay simple interest at 12% per annum on the outstanding loan amount, or the maximum interest permitted under applicable law, whichever is lower.

12. PROFIT AND LOSS SHARING

The net profit or net loss of the LLP shall be shared by the Partners in the ratio of 90:10. Net profit or net loss shall be determined after deduction of legitimate business expenses, including salaries, wages, commissions and other actual expenses incurred in connection with the business of the LLP.

13. ADDITIONAL FINANCE AND LOANS

No Partner shall raise finance, incur liability or obtain a loan on behalf of the LLP without the prior written consent of all the Partners. Any Partner who contravenes this provision shall be personally responsible for repayment of such liability.

14. REPRESENTATION

Subject to this Agreement, only a Designated Partner or a person duly authorised by the Designated Partner(s) shall be entitled to sign agreements, contracts, applications or other documents on behalf of the LLP. Acts done by a Designated Partner in the ordinary course of business shall be deemed to have been done on behalf of the LLP.

The Partners may authorise any person through a duly executed power of attorney to perform acts which the Partners are authorised to perform under this Agreement.

15. BOOKS OF ACCOUNT

The accounting year of the LLP shall be from 1 April to 31 March. The first accounting year shall run from the date of commencement of the LLP until 31 March of the subsequent year.

The Partners shall maintain books of account, records, vouchers and other records required under the Act and applicable law. Such records shall be kept at the registered office or in such lawful manner as permitted and shall be available for inspection by the Partners at reasonable times.

Accounts of the LLP shall be prepared and audited where required by the Act and applicable law.

16. STAFF AND REMUNERATION

Employees of the LLP shall be appointed with the consent of all Partners or by a person authorised by all Partners. Wages, salaries and other emoluments shall be paid according to the applicable policy of the LLP.

17. DESIGNATED PARTNERS AND POWERS

All Partners shall be regarded as Designated Partners within the meaning of the Act, subject to statutory requirements. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or the Act, day-to-day operations shall be managed by the Designated Partner(s).

A Designated Partner shall be responsible for acts, matters and filings required for compliance with the Act, including filing documents, returns and statements.

A new Partner may be designated as a Designated Partner with the consent of all existing Designated Partners and subject to applicable law.

18. VOTING RIGHTS AND UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Unless otherwise provided by the Act or this Agreement, matters relating to the LLP shall be decided by resolution approved by all Partners, with each Partner having one vote.

Unanimous consent shall be required for, among other matters: admission of a new Partner; opening a new bank account; purchase of fixed assets or capital expenditure; amendment of this Agreement; mortgage, charge or assignment of a Partner's share; drawing or endorsing bills or promissory notes; appointment or removal of employees where approval is required; giving security or guarantees; acquisition of property or goods; signing cheques on behalf of the LLP; compromise or discharge of debts; raising funds from banks, financial institutions or private parties; expulsion of a Partner; change of registered office; change of place of business; change in capital contribution; and change in the objects or business of the LLP.

19. RIGHTS OF THE PARTNERS

Each Partner shall have rights, title and interest in the assets and properties of the LLP in proportion to their respective capital contributions, subject to the Act and this Agreement.

Every Partner shall have the right to inspect and copy the books and records of the LLP.

Any sum advanced by a Partner to the LLP beyond the Partner's agreed capital contribution shall constitute a debt due from the LLP and shall carry simple interest at 12% per annum or such other rate as unanimously agreed, subject to applicable law.

The LLP shall have perpetual succession. The death, retirement or insolvency of a Partner shall not by itself dissolve the LLP.

On retirement, the retiring Partner shall be entitled to payment for his/her rights, title and interest in the LLP as determined under this Agreement and applicable law.

Upon death of a Partner, the legal heirs, executors or administrators shall be entitled to payment of the deceased Partner's rights, title and interest. An heir may be admitted as a Partner only with the consent required under this Agreement and applicable law.

If an heir does not opt to become a Partner, the surviving Partner(s) may purchase, or nominate a person to purchase, the deceased Partner's interest, subject to applicable law.

If a Partner becomes insolvent, the LLP shall not be dissolved, and the remaining Partner(s) may exercise rights available under applicable law regarding the insolvent Partner's interest.

20. DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTNERS

Each Partner shall act honestly and faithfully toward the other Partner(s) in matters relating to the LLP.

Each Partner shall diligently and sincerely attend to the business of the LLP and devote such time and attention as reasonably required.

Each Partner shall render true accounts and provide full and truthful information regarding the affairs of the LLP.

Each Partner shall comply with the LLP Act, applicable rules and other applicable laws.

A Partner shall account to the LLP for any profit derived without consent from a transaction concerning the LLP, its property, business connection or name.

Each Partner shall indemnify the LLP and the other Partner(s) for loss caused by fraud or material breach of this Agreement, subject to applicable law.

21. LIABILITY OF PARTNERS

The liability of the Partners shall be limited as provided under the Act and this Agreement.

22. RELATION BETWEEN PARTNERS AND LLP

Every Partner shall be an agent of the LLP for the purposes of the business of the LLP, but shall not be an agent of any other Partner.

23. MEETINGS

Meetings of the Partners may be called by giving fourteen (14) days' prior notice at their respective addresses. In urgent circumstances, a meeting may be called by telephone or other communication, provided the notice requirement is ratified by all Partners.

Meetings shall ordinarily be held at the registered office or at another place convenient to the Partners.

Decisions relating to the LLP shall be recorded in minutes within thirty (30) days and maintained at the registered office or in another lawful record-keeping system.

Each Partner shall devote the time and attention reasonably required for the fulfilment of the LLP's business objectives.

24. PROHIBITED ACTS

Partners, Designated Partners and employees shall not compete with the LLP during the period in which they are Partners, Designated Partners or employees, except with prior written approval where legally permissible.

No Partner shall engage or invest, independently or with others, in a business competing with the LLP without prior written approval of all other Partners and the LLP, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

If a Partner carries on a competing business in violation of this Agreement, the Partner shall account to the LLP for the proportion of profits attributable to such competing business, subject to applicable law.

25. RESTRICTION ON AUTHORITY

Surender Narayan Moharana

Stishree Sahu

ATTESTED BY
S. R. MISHRA
NOTARY, BHADRAK

No Partner shall bind or obligate the LLP in relation to any matter outside the scope of the LLP's business or this Agreement.

No Partner shall use the LLP's name, credit or property for purposes other than the business of the LLP.

No Partner shall do any act detrimental to the interests of the LLP or which would make it impossible to carry on its lawful business.

26. LLP NOT BOUND BY CERTAIN ACTS

The LLP shall not be bound by an act of a Partner in dealing with a person where the Partner has no actual authority to act for the LLP in that matter and the person knows that the Partner lacks authority or does not know or believe the person to be a Partner of the LLP.

27. INDEMNIFICATION

The LLP shall indemnify each Partner for payments made and personal liabilities incurred in the ordinary and proper conduct of the LLP's business or for acts necessarily done to preserve the business or property of the LLP, except in cases of gross negligence, wilful misconduct, fraud or acts outside the Partner's authority.

Each Partner shall indemnify the LLP for losses caused by that Partner's fraud or acts beyond the scope of authority in conducting the LLP's business.

28. ASSETS OF THE LLP

All tangible and intangible assets of the LLP, including goodwill, stock-in-trade, licences, permits and contractual benefits, shall be used for the business of the LLP and dealt with in accordance with this Agreement and applicable law.

29. RETIREMENT

A Partner may retire with the consent of all remaining Partner(s) or by giving one (1) month's advance written notice to the other Partner(s).

Retirement shall not release the retiring Partner from liabilities incurred before the effective date of retirement, to the extent provided by applicable law.

30. INTRODUCTION OF NEW PARTNERS

A new Partner may be admitted with the consent of all existing Partners on terms agreed with the incoming Partner. The rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the new Partner shall be recorded in writing and shall comply with applicable law.

31. EXPULSION / TERMINATION

A Partner may be expelled or his/her partnership terminated only in accordance with the LLP Act, applicable rules and this Agreement.

32. DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the LLP, the business shall be wound up and the assets and liabilities dealt with in accordance with the Act and applicable law.

33. DEATH OF A PARTNER

Death of a Partner shall not by itself dissolve the LLP. A legal representative or heir may be admitted as a Partner if permitted by law and with the required consent.

Suraya Narayan Moharana

Itishree Sahu

The legal representative or heir of a deceased Partner shall not be liable for losses incurred after the death unless admitted as a Partner, except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law.

Any annuity or other benefit to the deceased Partner's children may be provided if agreed by the surviving Partner(s), subject to applicable law.

34. OTHER EFFECTS OF CESSATION

Cessation of a Partner or Designated Partner shall not by itself discharge that person from obligations incurred while acting as a Partner or Designated Partner, subject to applicable law.

35. CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidential information of a Partner or the LLP shall be disclosed to officers, employees, consultants or third parties only to the extent necessary to perform rights and responsibilities under this Agreement, as required by law, or as required by a statutory authority.

36. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute among the Partners, between a Partner and the legal heirs or representatives of a deceased Partner, or between a Partner and the LLP concerning the construction, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or any matter connected with the LLP's business shall first be attempted to be resolved amicably.

If the dispute cannot be resolved amicably, it shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended or re-enacted from time to time. The arbitral award shall be binding on the parties to the dispute.

37. AMENDMENT

Subject to the Act, this Agreement may be amended only with the consent of all Partners. Every amendment shall be in writing and duly executed.

38. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, together with its exhibits, annexures and schedules, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties concerning its subject matter and supersedes prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations and understandings relating to the same subject matter.

39. ASSIGNMENT

No Party may assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations under it to another person without the prior written consent of the other Parties, subject to applicable law.

40. NOTICES

Any notice under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given when received. Notices may be sent by email, express courier, registered post, speed post or other legally recognised means to the respective addresses of the Parties.

41. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Agreement is held by a competent court to be unenforceable, that provision shall be severed or limited to the extent necessary and permitted by law, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

42. WAIVER

Sureya Narayan Moharana

Itishree Sahu.

No provision shall be deemed waived unless the waiver is made in writing by the Party granting it and, where required under this Agreement, approved by the remaining Partners.

43. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India.

44. JURISDICTION

Subject to the dispute-resolution provisions of this Agreement and applicable law, the competent courts having jurisdiction over the registered office of the LLP shall have jurisdiction in matters arising from or relating to this Agreement. The source draft mentioned Jaipur; this document has been corrected to avoid an apparent jurisdictional inconsistency with the registered office in Odisha.

45. COPIES

This Agreement is executed in duplicate, with one copy to be retained by each of the Parties.

46. BUSINESS OBJECTIVES

The business objectives of the LLP are as set out in Clause 8 of this Agreement and include the manufacture, development, marketing, distribution and lawful commercialisation of alkaline drinking water, Gulab Water, Hair Wash Water, Face Wash Water and related water-based products, together with all ancillary and incidental activities.

47. EXECUTION

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Partners have executed this Agreement on the date and at the place first written above.
